

The amateur radio operators have been subjected too long with man made interference on the radio bands. A time will come in the future when your organization will be required to undo your errors and require our government to pay for it.;